

My name is Calum Miller and I am a community governor. My youngest son is at Dr South's and my older children were also pupils at the school. We live in Islip. I am a member of faculty at the Blavatnik School of Government, Oxford University, and a county councillor.